Siam Legal International Launches ?Ask Rex? Video Series to Answer Common Thailand Privilege Visa Questions

August 11, 2026

Bangkok, Thailand - August 11, 2026 -

Siam Legal International has launched ?Ask Rex,? a new video series designed to answer common questions about the Thailand Privilege Visa through practical explanations, real case scenarios, and insights from the firm?s immigration professionals. The series provides foreign nationals with direct answers to questions that commonly arise when researching or considering Thailand?s long-term residency membership program, formerly known as the Thailand Elite Visa.

The launch comes as the profile and priorities of Thailand Privilege applicants continue to evolve. Siam Legal is seeing growing interest in the program among senior professionals, internationally mobile executives, entrepreneurs, families, and other foreign nationals seeking a structured long-term base in Thailand. According to the firm, consultations with prospective members are increasingly moving beyond basic questions about the visa to broader considerations such as long-term residency planning, family circumstances, income and tax considerations, and establishing a sustainable base in Thailand. Siam

Legal?s Thailand Privilege Visa report provides further insight into the changing needs and priorities of international applicants.

?Ask Rex? is hosted by Rex Baay, Senior Immigration Consultant and Operations Manager at Siam Legal International. The series is intended to use real questions and practical case scenarios to explain aspects of the Thailand Privilege Program that prospective applicants may find difficult to understand from general program information alone. Episodes will focus on specific questions and situations rather than simply presenting an overview of the membership program.

?We speak with clients every day who have very specific questions about Thailand Privilege, and many of those questions come from situations that are not covered by general program information,? said Rex Baay, Senior Immigration Consultant and Operations Manager at Siam Legal International. ?I wanted ?Ask Rex? to be a practical resource where we can take those real questions and explain the answers straightforwardly. Whether someone is just starting to explore Thailand Privilege or is already preparing an application, the aim is to give them a clearer understanding of what to expect.?

Siam Legal International is an authorized General Sales and Services Agent, or GSSA, for Thailand Privilege Card Co., Ltd. A GSSA is an authorized sales and service representative that assists prospective members with the Thailand Privilege Program, including explaining membership options, helping applicants understand documentation requirements, supporting the application process, and coordinating with the program. Siam Legal provides this assistance at no additional cost to applicants beyond the applicable Thailand Privilege membership fee.

Siam Legal has established itself as one of Thailand?s top-performing GSSAs for the Thailand Privilege Program. The firm has received recognition from Thailand Privilege Card Co., Ltd. for its sales performance, including the Best Sales Performance Award (Western) in 2024. The firm has subsequently continued to receive Thailand Privilege GSSA award recognition, with its 2026 recognition marking its third consecutive year of receiving a GSSA award.

The GSSA role is particularly relevant to foreign nationals who may have questions about how the Thailand Privilege membership process works in practice. As an authorized agent, Siam Legal can guide applicants through the program's application process while also drawing on its broader experience as a full-service law firm. This allows the firm to identify legal and immigration considerations that may be relevant beyond the membership application itself.

In practice, prospective members may need to consider how a long-term stay in Thailand interacts with their family arrangements, tax residency, property ownership, business activities, or other legal matters. Siam Legal's immigration team has previously emphasized that applicants should consider these issues before establishing long-term residency rather than treating them as separate matters after membership has already been obtained.

The ?Ask Rex? series is designed to address this practical side of Thailand Privilege. Future episodes will cover questions submitted by viewers as well as issues frequently raised during consultations with Siam Legal?s Thailand Privilege team. The format is intended to make technical immigration information easier to understand while giving viewers a clearer picture of the considerations involved in choosing and using the program.

Foreign nationals with questions about the Thailand Privilege Program can submit them for consideration in future episodes of ?Ask Rex? through Siam Legal International?s social media channels or contact the firm's team for a consultation. The series is intended as an educational resource, while applicants with individual legal, immigration, tax, or financial circumstances are encouraged to obtain advice specific to their situation before making long-term residency decisions.

Siam Legal International is a full-service law firm with more than 22 years of experience assisting foreign nationals in Thailand, with offices in Bangkok, Chiang Mai, Phuket, and Pattaya. The firm provides legal and immigration services covering Thailand Privilege, immigration, corporate and commercial law, property, family law, dispute resolution, litigation, and other legal matters relevant to international clients.
