Hodgins & Kiber, LLC Announces Super Lawyers Recognition for Personal Injury Lawyer David B. Hodgins

June 22, 2026

ATLANTA, GA - June 22, 2026 -
Hodgins & Kiber, LLC announces that founding attorney David B. Hodgins has been recognized in the Super Lawyers attorney directory for plaintiff personal injury work, including Rising Stars selection for 2019-2020. The Atlanta-based firm continues to represent injured clients throughout Georgia in car accidents, truck accidents, motorcycle crashes, and other personal injury matters.

The Super Lawyers directory provides third-party evaluation of attorney credentials, helping prospective clients assess legal representation options. The selection process involves peer nominations, independent research, and evaluation of professional achievements. Hodgins & Kiber utilizes this recognition to inform case handling procedures including investigation protocols, evidence preservation, insurance negotiations, and litigation preparation across all practice areas.

David B. Hodgins received his legal education from the University of Virginia and the University of Alabama School of Law. He maintains admission to both the State Courts of Georgia and Federal Courts of Georgia. As a personal injury lawyer, Hodgins leads case management alongside partner Troy Kiber for clients throughout the Atlanta metropolitan area. The LLC personal injury lawyer practice focuses on comprehensive representation from initial consultation through case resolution.

"Recognition is meaningful, but what matters most is how we show up for injured clients every day," said David B. Hodgins, founding attorney at Hodgins & Kiber. "Our job is to protect the client, document the full impact of the injury, and make sure the insurance company understands we are prepared to fight for a fair result."

The firm represents clients in multiple accident categories including car accidents, truck accidents, motorcycle accidents, rideshare accidents, pedestrian accidents, spine injuries, and traumatic brain injuries. Each case follows established procedures for evidence gathering, medical record compilation, and insurance company interaction. The firm operates on a contingency fee basis, with attorney fees collected only upon successful recovery of compensation.

Hodgins & Kiber, LLC personal injury lawyer handles cases in both state and federal courts throughout Georgia. This jurisdictional range enables representation of clients whose cases involve interstate commerce, federal regulations, or multi-state defendants. The firm's litigation preparation includes depositions, expert witness coordination, and trial presentation when settlement negotiations do not produce adequate compensation offers.

The firm provides initial consultations at no charge to prospective clients. The case evaluation process includes review of accident reports, assessment of liability factors, calculation of damages, and explanation of legal options available under Georgia law. The firm represents clients throughout the legal process from initial consultation through resolution.
